Hi John –

Last month I contacted Kimberly Holesha, the Program Coordinator at the Marengo / Union Library, and discussed at length this Public Repository. She was going to get back to me after discussing with the Director of the Library. I called again this morning on her progress. She stated that the Director has given notice and the library is currently "in flux", and that they cannot do anything right now until a new director is hired. I asked her to contact me when that occurred.

Hi Gerry,

Is the Public Repository set up at the local library yet? Your were going to check with Jack and I have not heard anything on the progress.
